DLA Piper is the only global law firm in Norway, with 70 lawyers and a total of 110 employees centrally located in Oslo.

Our lawyers have, in addition to the very best expert and technical qualifications, been hand-picked to a company that combines local knowledge and roots with a very strong international focus.

In addition to daily work for our clients in Norway, we also collaborate with our colleagues in a number of countries around the world on cases that affect Norwegian clients who have foreign business operations, and foreign clients who operate in Norway.

DLA Piper seamlessly and effectively cooperates across national borders, cultures and professional fields.

With us you have just one point of contact regardless of how many countries we assist you in, you sign one assignment agreement covering all jurisdictions and we work under one joint global liability insurance.

In DLA Piper sector knowledge, postgraduate studies and the at all times strongest professional expertise have been set in system.

As part of DLA Piper's global organisation we can easily assemble a multinational team of lawyers to assist in legal issues across national borders.

From the quality of our legal advice and business insight, to the efficiency of our legal teams, we believe that when it comes to the way we serve and interact with our clients, everything matters.
