EUROPEAN TECHNOLOGY LEADERS SUMMIT

Shane Burgess

Partner,
Odgers Berndtson

Shane Burgess is a Partner in the Technology, Entertainment & Communications practice where he recruits senior executives and board directors for technology, media and communications organisations across Europe and the US. He is based in our London office.

Before joining Odgers, he worked for another leading international executive search firm. Shane was a key member of their global technology and digital media team, where he recruited CEO and other board level positions.

His experience covers development stage firms, where he works closely with the private equity community, through to global enterprise organisations, dealing with disruptive events driven by technology, social media adoptions as well as new distribution models.

Shane graduated from University College Dublin with Honours and completed a postgraduate qualification in marketing. He began his career as a graduate with Saatchi and Saatchi in London.
