

BE LOCAL – GO GLOBAL

As one of the leading global business law firms, the success of DLA Piper depends clearly on our most important asset – our people. This is the reason why we put much effort in recruiting and retaining the best talent. Our high potentials benefit from exceptional worldwide career opportunities in a collaborative and international environment that is challenging, rewarding and truly different from that of our competitors.

We are committed to our people and we therefore invest in people's development with standardized local and international training and development programs.

DLA Piper Weiss-Tessbach offers a wide range of opportunities for students and young graduates, such as short and long-term internships, part-time jobs with flexible working hours as well as full-time jobs and the participation in various workshops and events.
