

Grigor Hadjiev

Global Head of Innovation and European Sustainability, PIMCO Prime Real Estate

Grigor Hadjiev is the Head of Innovation and European Sustainability of PIMCO Prime Real Estate (formerly Allianz Real Estate) and sits on the European Senior Leadership Committee.

He leads the sustainability, technology and decarbonization efforts on the European portfolio and the firm's global smart building program. Before that, he was responsible for the design and execution of large redevelopment programs in south and west Europe.

Before joining the firm in 2018, he was Director for French-speaking Switzerland at Drees & Sommer. He started his career as an architect and general planner before joining a strategy and finance advisory firm. An alumnus of ETH Zurich, HEC Paris and ENSAPLV, Grigor has master's degrees in Architecture and Management.

In 2017, he became a qualified member of RICS.