

Renita Sophia Crasta

General Counsel and Group Data Protection Officer - TGR Real Estate

Renita serves as the Co-President of Singapore Corporate Counsel Association (SCCA) and is the Co-Chair of the Sustainability Chapter, Real Estate Chapter and Women's Chapter. She also sits on the General Council and Steering Committee (representing SCCA) with In-house Counsel Worldwide (ICW).

Renita is also the General Counsel and Group Data Protection Officer with TGR Real Estate. Following her graduation from NUS Faculty of Law, Renita joined Allen & Gledhill LLP, where she acquired both Litigation and Corporate experience during her 7 years there, before spending the next 10 years in-house with real estate landlord/developer entities Ascendas and CapitaLand, covering both local and international portfolios.

She has since completed a Masters of Law and Public Administration, as well as attended the SMC and SIMC courses, along with the SAL Specialist Accreditation Course in Construction Law. For her various efforts, she was awarded the ALB Young In-House Lawyer of the Year Award for 2020, has been named a finalist for the ALB Woman In-House of the Year Award 2021 and 2022 and is a Generation Tatler awardee for her contributions to the law and community. She also sits on the board of Women in Sustainability and Environment to encourage more women in ESG areas.
