

Dr Crina Baltag is Associate Professor in International Arbitration at Stockholm University and qualified attorney-at-law, with over twenty years of extensive practice in various aspects on international dispute resolution, private and public international law. Crina is the academic director of the LL.M. in International Commercial Arbitration Law at Stockholm University and member of the Board of the SCC Arbitration Institute.

Crina is the managing editor of Kluwer Arbitration Blog, co-managing editor of ITA Arbitration Report and member of editorial boards of prestigious journals and book series in the field, including of the Journal of International Arbitration. Crina publishes extensively on commercial and investment arbitration topics.

Since 2018, Crina is a delegate observer to the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL), and she is currently participating in the UNCITRAL Working Group II: Dispute Settlement, and the UNCITRAL Working Group III: Investor-State Dispute Settlement Reform.

Crina has been appointed as arbitrator in numerous arbitrations under the rules of the ICC, LCIA, SIAC, SCC, FAI, VIAC etc., and has acted as expert and counsel in various international commercial and investment arbitrations.