

Gabriele Ruscalla is a member of Liedekerke's International Arbitration and Dispute Resolution Practice. He has assisted on matters involving corporate clients, States and State-owned entities in both international commercial and investment arbitrations, conducted under the major arbitration rules, with particular focus on construction, energy, oil & gas, distribution, general commercial matters and investment protection. He also represents clients in arbitration-related matters before state courts, and acts as arbitrator in international commercial disputes.

Before joining Liedekerke, he was Counsel at the Secretariat of the ICC International Court of Arbitration, and previously worked as an associate in the international arbitration group of a global law firm in Paris, for almost three years.

Gabriele Ruscalla is Adjunct Professor of Business and Human Rights at IE Law School (Madrid) and teaches International Commercial and Investment Arbitration as Lecturer at HEAD Law School (Paris) and at the Catholic University of Lille (Paris Campus). He frequently publishes articles and notes, and regularly speaks at conferences and seminars about international arbitration-related subjects.

He studied law and international relations at the University of Milan, Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne and Columbia Law School, and he got his PhD in International Law at Bocconi University. He is admitted to the Paris Bar (Avocat à la Cour) and registered as Foreign Lawyer to the Brussels Bar.
