

Maria Chiara Malaguti is Full Professor of International law at Università Cattolica Sacro Cuore (Milan/Rome, Italy). She was appointed President of UNIDROIT since 1 September 2020.

She is also legal advisor to the Italian Ministry for Foreign Affairs on trade matters and to the World Bank on modernization of payment systems, financial markets, and governance. An international arbitrator for commercial disputes and foreign direct investments included in various rosters (including ICSID), she supports the General Attorney's Office of Italy in all procedures opened against Italy until now for international investment law.

She has been legal assistant and chief of cabinet at the European Court of Justice, and until July 2003 she was senior expert in the Payments Systems Division of the European Central Bank, advising in legal matters to the Section on Securities Settlement Systems. She currently practices as an attorney in Rome and Milan.

Dr. Malaguti holds degrees in law and in economics, an LLM from Harvard Law School and a PhD from the European University Institute (EUI) in Florence, Italy. She has various publications, mainly focusing on financial markets and sovereign debt, harmonization of law and international investment law.