

Marina Matousekova is a partner at Talma Dispute Resolution, a boutique specialized in international arbitration and litigation that she has founded in 2022 with three colleagues. Before that, she has worked in the international arbitration department of Shearman & Sterling for 10 years, and for another 10 years in a French-Italian boutique, that was led initially by Alexis Mourre (former President of the ICC International Court of Arbitration) and in which she became the Head of the arbitration and litigation group. Marina specializes in arbitration, both as counsel and arbitrator, and assists clients in disputes related notably to energy, construction, investment, joint ventures and complex commercial disputes, including IP disputes.

Marina is one of the four Co-Chairs of the Italian Forum for Arbitration and ADR (Arbit) for the biennial 2022-2023. She is the Treasurer of the Arbitration Academy. She teaches international arbitration at the University of Paris V and at the Ecole de Formation du Barreau (EFB). Since 2019, Marina is on the list of Best Lawyers in Mediation and Arbitration in France, as well as on the list of Future Leaders of Who's Who Legal in Arbitration and Construction. She is admitted to the Paris and New York bars. She is fluent in English, French and Italian and has a basic knowledge of Slovak, Czech and Russian
