

LITIGATION & ARBITRATION

AN OVERVIEW OF OUR TEAM

YOUR KEY ISSUES

Whatever your type of company, whether private or public, local or international, large or small, you will be required to comply with a constantly evolving legal and regulatory framework that impacts on your business operations.

Your interests need to be defended with legal expertise and a solid understanding of your strategic issues. Managing this risk requires expertise on applicable legislation, best practices, lobbying, competition, corporate defense, crisis management, compliance programs and regulatory changes.

It requires both a broad and an innovative approach to the complex and sometimes conflicting relationships between companies, as well as with French and European administrations. It also applies to pre-litigation management, prevention of criminal risk in state courts and before the European or arbitral authorities.

HOW DLA PIPER CAN HELP

Our in-depth understanding of our clients' needs enables us to offer innovative solutions for your projects at every stage, with expertise in:

Competition law, distribution and consumption, from the most simple to the most innovative, in litigation and in counsel.

Complex contractual and financial arrangements between the public and the private sector, such as public-private partnerships, the privatizations and the private financing of public projects.

Litigation across traditional areas of public law: regulatory law related to complex and evolving sectors, such as energy, telecommunications, environment, and urban planning.

Litigation across traditional areas of public law: regulatory law related to complex and evolving sectors, such as energy, telecommunications, environment, and urban planning.

Corporate litigation: shareholder disputes, directors liability, post-acquisition litigation, banking litigation, collective procedures litigation, and more generally, commercial litigation.

Arbitration: institutional or ad hoc, legal disputes beyond arbitration proceedings, including conservatory or provisional measures, annulment appeals against arbitration awards. Advising investors, state or legal entities of public law for arbitration relating to investments and/or subject to procedures submitted to ICSID rules or other regulations in multiple sectors such as, acquisition transactions or joint ventures, contractual disputes, hydrocarbons, energy, mining and natural resources, intellectual property, banking and finance, distribution, international trade, construction.

Internal investigations notably based on the extraterritorial reach of American and British anti-corruption, anti-money laundering and economic sanctions.
