WORLDWIDE ON-SITE

DLA Piper was established through the merger of the law firms DLA LLP (previously Dibb Lupton Alsop) from London, Gray Cary Ware & Friedenreich from San Diego and Piper Rudnick LLP from Baltimore. Today, DLA Piper is one of the world's largest law firms situated in more than 30 countries in Europe, Asia Pacific, the Middle East and the Americas. DLA Piper Weiss-Tessbach has been advising clients since the year 1878 and has become an internationally fully integrated part of DLA Piper in 2003. With more than 60 lawyers, our Vienna office advises Austrian and international corporations from all economic sectors in Austria and internationally.

AT THE HEART OF EUROPE

Austria has consolidated its position at the heart of European trade. For many years Austria has benefited from being the economic gateway to Central and Eastern Europe (CEE) for European and international businesses. Whether Austria is the focus of your activity or is a key part of your regional or international operations, we can help you to take advantage of a favourable investment environment.

LOCAL KNOW-HOW, INTERNATIONAL TEAM

Our lawyers in Vienna know the legal and commercial environment in Austria and provide first hand experience in meeting unique legal challenges.

For professional advice in international law, we also have international lawyers in our Vienna office in addition to our Austrian lawyers. Our team regularly coordinates international transactions and projects, with the involvement of our global offices.
