

International Corporate Reorganizations

Unparalleled global experience planning and implementing a range of cross-border projects.

Advising on entity choices and forming subsidiaries, branches and representative offices around the globe

Separating business units into stand-alone structures and positioning them for sale to a third party or for an IPO

Tax-attribute planning with intra-group transactions, mergers, migrations, financings

Rationalizing your structure to remove dormant and redundant entities

Preparing and implementing a global corporate compliance program and managing global D&O changes, FYE changes, registered address changes and other desired/required changes

Combining entities, work forces and businesses worldwide through local mergers, asset or business transfers